

NATALIE TOLHOPF

One of New Zealand's Top Sales And Mindset Coaches

Natalie teaches business owners to cultivate powerful self-belief and become confident selling in a simple, authentic, and successful way.

For the last decade Natalie has been a mindset motivator, butt-kick facilitator and bad-ass cheerleader for high-achieving women in business. Teaching them how-to drop the self-sabotage and take consistent, imperfect action to grow their biz AND their revenue with confidence.

"Nat spoke on stage at our recent conference and she was phenomenal. She has a special skill of owning the stage and weaving conversations that open both the heart and the mind." - Kate Ruby Aroha
